

MTN Foundation

Thomas Nhlapo is CEO of Sedibeng, and as part of his duties, overall management of the hospital in terms of relevant acts and delegations as well as to serve.

Nominated by Beatrice Pelogaë who says of Thomas Nhlapo Thomas is a dynamic, inspiring and a strong leader as well as people's person. He is regularly in contact with staff and makes everyone feel worthwhile. A very excellent analytical listener as well as having excellent communication skills.

Themba Mthombeni has held senior management positions in corporate sectors and has distinguished himself in the field of management consulting. Themba was an HR Director in De Beers and an Executive Director at Western Cape Tourism. He also helped in the formation of Cape Town Routes Unlimited (CTRU) as well as being a Principal Consultant of Strategy and Change management at PriceWaterHouseCoopers. He is the Executive Chairman and founder of Duma Travel.

Nokuthula Dlamini, his nominator informs: I nominated Themba Mthombeni for this Award because I believe he is a great leader. One of his values is to encourage his employees to empower themselves and he is always willing to develop his people. He is an excellent team player and mentor. Mr T is a cool dude, a great person, friend, and boss all rolled into one. He is the BEST.

Professor Sabiha Essack – a renowned scientist in – has an expansive academic career which has seen her achieve an impressive research publication and conference presentation record.

This is what Sandra Naidoo has to say: My boss, Sabiha Essack, is a dynamic, motivational and inspirational and a professional who is passionate about helping staff and students. Her exceptional leadership qualities inspire excellence.

Sabiha shows us appreciation; treats all people with respect and dignity.